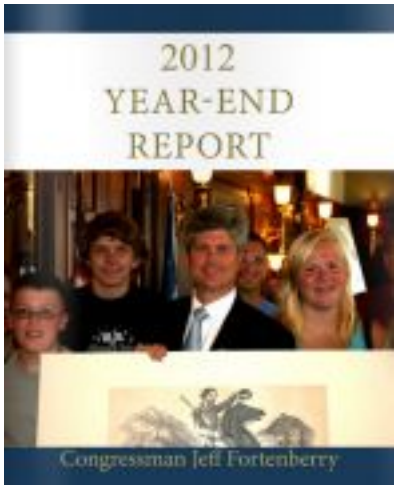
Traditionally, I prepare an end of year report as an overview of the activities my office in the last year. It is a tremendous privilege to serve the people of Nebraska's First Congressional District in the United States House of Representatives, and I am pleased to have the opportunity to give you this update. I invite you to review the 2012 Year-End Report by clicking here (or on my website at http://fortenberry.house.gov/) to learn about our efforts in Washington and back home in Nebraska.



Cover photo taken at the Library of Congress this summer with students from Fremont.

I hope this report is of interest to you as we look ahead to the major policy decisions facing our country. As always, please feel free to contact my office with your thoughts and questions.