

The Internet provides a wealth of information, data, and tools of use to small businesses. Reference the links below for more information.

U.S. Business Advisor

A one-stop electronic link to the information and services government provides for the business community

Export.gov

The U.S. government's export and international trade assistance portal

The U.S. Small Business Administration

The U.S. Small Business Administration, established in 1953, provides financial, technical and management assistance to help Americans start, run, and grow their businesses.

PRO-Net

An electronic gateway of procurement information — for and about small businesses. It is a search engine for contracting officers, a marketing tool for small firms and a "link" to procurement opportunities and important information.

On-Line Women's Business Center

The SBA's Office of Women's Business Ownership promotes the growth of women-owned businesses through programs that address business training and technical assistance, and provide access to credit and capital, federal contracts, and international trade opportunities.

IRS Tax Info For Small Businesses

This site provides information for self-employed entrepreneurs, employers and small-large businesses. The site offers a broad range of resources across federal and state agencies, as well as industry/profession specific information.