State and military leaders gathered Tuesday to officially open the new Nebraska National Guard Joint Force Center.

The state of the art building will house the Nebraska Army and Air National Guard, the State Emergency Management Agency, and a State Patrol dispatch center.

Click here to read more and watch the video.