

Washington, D.C. – Congressman Jeff Fortenberry today voted for a resolution to hold Attorney General Eric Holder in contempt of Congress for his refusal to turn over subpoenaed documents related to the Fast and Furious "gun-walking" operation.

"President Obama said that this was going to be the most transparent administration in history. After several attempts through normal channels, Congress can't get the information it needs to account for the tragedies resulting from Operation Fast and Furious. I had no choice but to vote for this resolution that seeks to hold the Administration accountable."
